Weekly Newsletter

Dear parents/carers,

We have reached the end of the half term, and it is one we can look back on with real positivity across the school. It has been great for so much of school life to return to 'normal' with clubs, trips, visitors and sports fixtures all taking place regularly again. Students have been working really hard in their lessons and are clearly making great progress.

Safeguarding for parents/carers – a reminder that we are running our first 'Safeguarding for Parents/Carers' session on Wednesday 3rd November from 4-5pm in the TFA hall. The session will be hosted by our safeguarding leads, will focus on online safety, safeguarding trends, sexual abuse and we will be joined by two Metropolitan Police officers for a Q&A.

This will be a termly event, with visiting speakers, and will respond to emerging safeguarding issues as well as how to help your child stay safe.

If you would like to reserve spaces, please complete this very short form, so we can anticipate numbers.

Parent Voice – Safeguarding Survey – I would really appreciate if all parents could complete this short survey about safeguarding at TFA – your feedback will help us plan forward and ensure that TFA is safe for everyone. It should hopefully take less than 2 minutes to complete.

The students will complete a similar survey which will be shared by their heads of year on Show My Homework.

Exam invigilators – we have vacancies across our trust for exam invigilators. I would appreciate if you could let anyone you may know, who is looking for some part time work, know about these vacancies. More information and how to apply is attached on the next page.

Covid Testing – we continue to encourage everyone to test twice weekly for Covid. Students can always collect spare lateral flow testing kits from reception.

I hope you and your families manage to have a break over half term, and we look forward to seeing the students back in school for 8.35 on Monday 1st November.

Kind regards,

Mr Mackintosh
Principal
